

Trusted Professional Development for Educators

Team learning with ISTE for education transformation

Educators and leaders crave resources and professional development to help them overcome today's challenges, and the piecemeal approach simply isn't successful. Thanks to our 40-year history in researched-backed professional learning, ISTE is your one-stop solution for trusted districtwide PD.

When you partner with ISTE, you're instantly connected to tools and resources you can easily fold into your PD plan to meet district-wide priorities for digital learning and tech integration.

Budget-wise, time-conscious PD in a variety of formats

Learning events

ISTE's immersive, collaborative events bring together educators who are reinventing education and using technology to help students drive their own learning. Our virtual and in-person events draw the most innovative education change-makers from around the world.
